Subject: Appeal

Dear Heather,

I came to see regarding a permit for a deck. You called me last week saying it was denied for privacy reasons as it could be a place where we could organize parties.

I thought more about it and it is really not possible for us to use it for parties as it would require all people to go through our master bedroom, and we specifically did not create stairs from outside for this reason. In addition, we are really replacing an old structure that was a hazard to a brand new deck meeting all code requirements.

For this reason, we would like to appeal the decision. Could you please let me know the process/additional papers to bring to be able to appeal this first denial?

Thank you,
